HARASSMENT AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Inappropriate, discriminating and insulting talk, messages or e-mails don't belong to Lapland UAS as they don't belong to any other place of study or work.

ROTKO has a Code of Conduct which is a guide for example for events and tutoring.

The guide is available online on ROTKO's website:

<https://lapinrotko.fi/en/studentunion/materials/>

ROTKO also has harassment contact persons who support and give advice to students who have experienced disturbance of any form. Our contacts don't document names and they have full professional confidentiality.
